RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The Spanish language newspaper HOY, for April 16 through April 23, devotes considerable space to the assassination of President KENNEDY. The following gives the contents of the articles published:

(These newspapers were furnished by MM 492-S to SA JAMES D. HAYES on May 6, 1964.)

April 16, 1964

A full-page article entitled, "Sensational Revelations about the Assassination of Kennedy", is a verbatim translation of a radio interview between MARK LANE, U.S. Attorney, and KAREL KYNCL, correspondent for Radio Prague in New York. The article is divided into the following subheadings:

Oswald did not kill TIPPET.

The shots were not fired from the book warehouse.

FBI pressure on witnesses.

Another rifle and another OSWALD.

The meeting of the real assassins.

OSWALD's fingerprints were not there.

The atmosphere in Dallas? Fascism.

A book which the FBI will not like.

A foreword explains that U.S. scientist, THOMAS BUCHANAN, has made an analysis of the official versions of the assassination of President KENNEDY. The foreword also says that BUCHANAN does not claim that he has the solution, but he advises that the people of the U.S. seek the solution together.
